Signature Required:

I have read the Tripoli Rocketry Association Safety Code and agree to abide by this code while participating in Tripoli-San Diego sponsored launches.

I acknowledge and fully understand that the launching of rockets and associated activities involve risks of serious injury, including permanent disability and death, and severe losses which might result from the actions, inaction, or negligence of participants, and others; the conditions of the weather; the environment; or of any equipment used. I assume all of these risks and accept personal responsibility of the losses and damages caused by my rockets and activity in Tripoli-San Diego rocket launch activities. I release, waive, discharge and covenant not to sue each and every of the coordinators, sponsors, partners, officers, and directors of Tripoli San Diego and all other participants, from any and all liability to myself, my heirs and my personal representatives for any and all claims, demands, losses or damages caused or alleged to be caused in whole or part by rocketry and associated activity. Should the need arise, I authorize the organizers of rocketry activities to obtain for me and consent to the administration of emergency medical treatment.
